At times, Viking products are specified with the condition that Viking make training available to installers and persons responsible for the operation and maintenance of systems with Viking products installed. On these occasions, and when training is provided, the following Terms and Conditions apply.

Terms and Conditions for Product Training by Viking Corporation:

1. The Viking Corporation does not approve, qualify or certify installers, design, or completed systems. When requested, as a courtesy and solely at its own discretion, The Viking Corporation may provide training to explain operating characteristics of products it manufactures and distributes and the systems on which they are installed.
2. Training by representatives of The Viking Corporation is offered as a courtesy only and is not provided as expert opinion regarding the design, layout, suitability of product or system for its intended purpose, or compliance with any standard, law, or code. For such opinion the seeker is directed to advice and opinion of appropriate design professionals and Authorities Having Jurisdiction.
3. For budgeting purposes, training by representatives of the Viking Corporation can be arranged through the Viking SupplyNet distribution location local to the training venue at a rate of $1500 per day* plus travel and lodging expenses for each representative and acceptance of the conditions described in paragraphs 1 and 2 above.

* Rate subject to change. Contact the Viking SupplyNet distribution location local to the training venue to verify rate in effect.
